Equity Trustees honours 10 years of service to super board by industry veteran John Crocker

With 50 years' experience in superannuation, industry veteran John Crocker was congratulated for his decade of service as a director of Equity Trustees Superannuation Limited (ETSL) by Equity Trustees' Chairman, Tony Killen.

"John is highly regarded in the industry and we are delighted to have had his trustee expertise and leadership in the service of our Superannuation Board. He was a part of the industry during the key formation years and in particular through the 1970's before superannuation was part of the industrial landscape or mandated by regulators," said Mr Killen.

Mr Crocker was appointed to the ETSL Board on 1 October 2006. ETSL is a wholly owned subsidiary of EQT Holdings Limited.

Mr Crocker began his career as an actuary at the AMP Society and before moving to Towers Perrin (now part of Towers Watson and Willis), where he had a long and successful career spanning more than 20 years. Towers Perrin was the leading consulting firm in Australia throughout most of this period.

He was Managing Director of Towers Perrin's London Employee Benefits Consulting business from 1991 – 1994 and Managing Director for the Asia Pacific, and Australia, from 1994 until his retirement in 1996. Mr Crocker was also actively involved in the industry peak body, the Association of Superannuation Funds of Australia (ASFA) during this time.

Since retirement, Mr Crocker has served on numerous boards in the financial services and superannuation industries, including approved trustee companies.

"John's experience, expertise and credentials have served our Superannuation Board and the members of ETSL superannuation funds very well for 10 years. This is an important milestone I thank him on behalf of all directors and staff, for his service and his commitment," Mr Killen concluded.
