Equity Trustees appointed as specialist super trustee of Aracon Super

Equity Trustees Superannuation Limited (ETSL) has been appointed as independent super trustee of The Aracon Superannuation Fund (ASF), overseeing the $400 million master trust.

The latest announcement follows Equity Trustees' super trustee appointments including HUB24's Super Fund, AMP Life's superannuation funds and by AIA to oversee their superannuation funds.

"We are really pleased to see a further appointment for our superannuation trustee business. There is no question this is a growth part of our specialist trustee business and there is strong interest in our credentials as pure independent professional trustee with scale and capability to deal with any level of complexity," said Equity Trustees' Managing Director, Mick O'Brien.

Executive General Manager of Equity Trustees' Superannuation Trustee Office, Mark Blair, said: "We have focused on building-out our technical and professional capability, with a number of new professionals joining the team in recent months, to ensure we are the preferred independent trustee for Australian super funds."

"The appointment to act as trustee for the Aracon Superannuation Fund is another great addition to our rapidly growing superannuation trustee business. We look forward to working towards ensuring the best member outcomes can be achieved now and, in the future," Mr Blair concluded.
