This policy addresses these areas and also outlines the tenure policy for directors of the EQTHL Board and its subsidiary boards¹, to whom this policy applies.

NOMINATION

1. The determination on whether a vacancy exists for a director on the EQTHL Board or its subsidiary boards is based on an assessment undertaken by the respective boards with consideration to the entity’s strategic objectives, it’s constitutional and legal obligations, the expertise of directors collectively on that board, and EQTHL’s diversity objectives.
2. The search process for a non-executive director is determined by the EQTHL Board on a case-by-case basis. The Remuneration, Human Resources and Nominations Committee (“the Committee”) may assist with the process, using external consultants and recruitment agents where necessary.
3. Recommendations to the EQTHL Board from the Committee on the election or re-election of a director is based upon an assessment of the director’s performance (for re-elections), independence², any conflicts of interest, availability to perform their duties, fitness and proprietary, and the skills, experience and expertise needed for the proper functioning of the respective board.
4. The EQTHL Board recommends the election and re-election of non-executive directors to its shareholders.

13. In determining a recommendation for a director's re-election, its board will make an evaluation based on the requirements of this policy and the director's performance during their tenure. A director's performance may be based on feedback such as from other directors on the board, and the outcome of board performance reviews.
